

Title: Precious Memories

Description: A person remember better days of a time he was in love

Type: Male vocal

Genre: Rhythm and Blues

Mood: somber

Topic: Love song

Instruments: N/A

Writer: Dave Bell

Publishers: N/A

Performers: N/A

Copyright Year: 2010

BPM:

Lyrics:

Precious Memories

Whatever happened to
The woman I once knew
The one who said I do
Back in nineteen fifty two

You would keep the house
Pleated skirt and blouse
colors in pastels
Ribbons - pony tails

Kitchens spotless floor
Meet me at the door
Kisses me each day
Sends me on my way

Times were happy then
Life moves on again
But I remember when
A simple love began

*I cry for days gone by, and often wonder why
I cannot take a photograph and try stop the world that way
And when I think of then, and I knew you when Ill take these precious memories to my dying day*

(music bridge)

When the sixties came things weren't quite the same
You had different needs
Started wearing beads

And in the seventies dear
you had your own career
I felt my life content
As you came and went

In our eighties home
And how the kids have grown
Things move on its true
But Im still loving you

Then our time was done
in that millennium
Like a leaf on high
Time has drifted by

*I cry for day gone by, and often wonder why
I cannot take a photograph and try stop the world that way
And when I think of then, and I knew you when Ill take these precious memories to my dying day*

(music bridge)

Now my time has come
But I remember one
Who back in fifty two
Said to me I do

And yet with all the change
I still see you the same
Yet through your disguise
I see the young girl still hidden in your eyes

And I take these precious memories with me to my grave.

© Dave Bell 2010