

Back To The Country

I'm gonna quit my job on Friday
I'm gonna sell my stuff on E-bay
I'm gonna make my suits all sleeveless
I'm gonna dump my city address

*And Go baby go
Go baby go
Go baby go
Back to the Country*

No more deadlines goals or targets
No more bosses; office politics
No more pompous friends and neighbors
No more fast food; French fried taters

*So Go baby go
Go baby go
Go baby go
Back to the Country*

/Rhythm and Lead/

I don't need no false ambition
A better life is my new mission
Gonna live off love and freedom
I'm gonna find me wild wild women

*When I Go baby go
Go baby go
Go baby go
Back to the Country*

*Go baby go
Go baby go
Go baby go
Back to the Country*
